

Please do not touch this law. Before the law was passed we would recieve over ten calls a night and at all hours of the night. All of these calls were for things we have no desire to have but they would get quite aggressive. After the law was passed, we stopped getting all of the calls with the exception of political parties and charities. In fact if you want to do something positive, place those two on the no call list as well.